PRACTICAL DIFFICULTIES

ALL QUESTIONS REQUIRE A COMPLETE RESPONSE

R.R.C.O. 1133.17(c)(1). In order to grant an area variance, the following factors shall be considered and weighted by the Board of Appeals to determine practical difficulty:

A.) Describe what special conditions and circumstances exist which are peculiar to the land or structure involved and which are not applicable generally to other land or structures in the same zoning district (i.e., exceptional irregularity, narrowness, shallowness or steepness of the lot; or proximity to non-conforming and inharmonious uses, structures or conditions).

Existing lot shape includes a triangular area that extends to the corner of Depot and Lake.

The main entrance faces this area, which is shared parking with the adjacent property owner.

This area may not meet the definition of frontage but this side is the most visible to passing traffic.

B.) Explain whether the property in question will yield a reasonable return or whether there can be any beneficial use of the property without the variance (discuss use limitations without the variance).

Signage facing Lake Rd. is critical to have visibility. Depot St. has limited traffic and views of the building are obstructed by the topography adjacent to the railroad.

C.) Explain whether the variance is substantial and is the minimum necessary to make possible the reasonable use of the land or structures (demonstrate how much the variance request deviates from Code requirements, i.e., coverage is 1 or 2% above Code, or setback is 1 or 2 feet less than Code requirement).

Variances are minimal and reflect the unique conditions of the property.

D.) Explain whether the essential character of the neighborhood would be substantially altered and whether adjoining properties would suffer substantial detriment as a result of the variance (discuss the increase of value, use, and aesthetic appeal for both your property and adjoining properties, together with any negative impact to adjoining properties).

Adjacent properties are utilized as parking and railroad, therefore the signage will have little impact to the neighborhood.

E.) Explain whether the variance would adversely affect the delivery of governmental services, such as water, sewer, or trash pickup.

None

F.) Explain whether the property owner purchased the property with knowledge of the zoning restrictions.

Property owner did not specifically understand signage limitations of the zoning code.

G.) Explain whether special conditions or circumstances exist as a result of actions of the owner.

The owner painted the signage on the building without approval, but is willing to work with the city to determine the appropriate resolution.

H.) Explain whether the property owner's predicament feasibly can be obviated through some method other than a variance (why other means and methods of property improvements or enhancements would not suffice).

There are no other means in regards to the shape of the parcel and frontage.

I.) Explain whether the spirit and intent behind the zoning requirement would be observed and substantial justice done by granting a variance (discuss the positive impact of your improvement on your property and on the surrounding neighborhood).

The proposed signage will allow the public to know that the self-storage use is available to them.

J.) Explain whether the granting of the variance requested will confer on the applicant any special privilege that is denied by this regulation to other lands, structures, or buildings in the same district.

None

K.) Explain whether a literal interpretation of the provisions of this Code would deprive the applicant of rights commonly enjoyed by other properties in the same district under the terms of this Code.

Yes, the provisions of the code do not account for the shape of the parcel or how the definition of frontage is applied to this parcel.

PLEASE NOTE: A separate Permit Application and fee will be due prior to issuance of the Building Permit. NO CONSTRUCTION IS TO BEGIN until the Building Permit has been issued.
